

LIBRARY, MUSEUMS AND PRESS STUDENT ASSISTANT SCHOLARSHIP 2018-2019 APPLICATION FORM

AWARD INFORMATION:

One scholarship of $1,000 is available annually. The recipient of the award must provide proof of matriculation to an ALA-accredited master's program or an equivalent degree in an allied profession. If there are no applicants, no award will be given.

ELIGIBILITY:

Applicants must be current or former student assistants who have worked at the UD Library, Museums and Press for at least one semester (a minimum of 150 hours). They must have been accepted to an ALA-accredited library science or information studies master's program, or an accredited program in an allied profession, including but not limited to: museums, art history, publishing, information science or digital humanities. They also must have a 3.0 GPA or higher.

To apply, please submit all of the following items:

- A completed application form (see next page)
- A letter stating reasons for interest in becoming a librarian or allied professional, and addressing how the degree program relates to your goals of working in libraries, museums or publishing
- Two letters of recommendation, one of which must be from a Library, Museums and Press staff member addressing your current or previous experience as a student or graduate assistant
- Proof of application or acceptance to an ALA-accredited master's program or equivalent graduate program in an allied field
- Evidence of a 3.0 GPA or higher

NOTE: The scholarship recipient will need to provide proof of enrollment in his or her graduate program prior to the award's disbursement.
