

1

00:00:00,000 --> 00:00:02,433

The University of Delaware library

2

00:00:02,433 --> 00:00:04,600

provides access to more than books and 3

00:00:04,600 --> 00:00:06,966 articles. You can also use the library to 4

00:00:06,966 --> 00:00:10,300

find DVDs, Blu-rays, e-Videos, video games,

5

00:00:10,300 --> 00:00:12,666 and other media formats. All of these 6

00:00:12,666 --> 00:00:14,366

items can be found using DELCAT

7

00:00:14,366 --> 00:00:17,766

Discovery. In this video you will learn

8

00:00:17,766 --> 00:00:19,833

some tips and tricks for making the most 9

00:00:19,833 --> 00:00:25,666

of your searches for these items. If you 10

00:00:25,666 --> 00:00:27,333

know that you are only interested in 11

00:00:27,333 --> 00:00:30,900

finding DVDs, e-Videos, video games, etc., you 12

00:00:30,900 --> 00:00:32,800

can limit your search to return just 13

00:00:32,800 --> 00:00:38,000

those materials. [library.udel.edu/filmandvideo website appears onscreen]

14

00:00:38,000 --> 00:00:43,200

This search box is now

15

00:00:43,200 --> 00:00:44,933 ready to scan the library's film and 16

00:00:44,933 --> 00:00:50,400

video collection for your materials.

17

00:00:50,400 --> 00:00:52,566

There are several different kinds of 18

00:00:52,566 --> 00:00:55,033

searches you can perform. If you don't 19

00:00:55,033 --> 00:00:57,033

know the exact title you need you can 20

00:00:57,033 --> 00:00:59,200

search using a topic keyword by typing a 21

00:00:59,200 --> 00:01:01,500

phrase into the search box. You may also 22

00:01:01,500 --> 00:01:03,133

search using the name of someone 23

00:01:03,133 --> 00:01:05,000

associated with the films in which you're 24

00:01:05,000 --> 00:01:07,100

interested - Such as a director or an 25

00:01:07,100 --> 00:01:10,766

actress or actor. Use quotes to signify 26

00:01:10,766 --> 00:01:12,200

that you're looking for that exact

27

00:01:12,200 --> 00:01:16,700

phrase in your results. Here are a few 28

00:01:16,700 --> 00:01:18,700

things to notice in the full record.

29

00:01:18,700 --> 00:01:22,500

Format. Please note: Blu-ray discs

30

00:01:22,500 --> 00:01:24,766

sometimes contain standard DVDs as well.

31

00:01:24,766 --> 00:01:26,766

So even if you don't have a Blu-ray

32

00:01:26,766 --> 00:01:28,933

player you may wish to check out a disc

33

00:01:28,933 --> 00:01:32,266

that is paired with a regular DVD. Media

34

00:01:32,266 --> 00:01:34,933

Loan or Restricted Loan. This will tell 35

00:01:34,933 --> 00:01:36,533

you if you can check the item out of the 36

00:01:36,533 --> 00:01:39,300

library. Undergraduates may check media

37

00:01:39,300 --> 00:01:41,433

loan items out of the library for 3 days.

38

00:01:41,433 --> 00:01:44,166

If you belong to a user class who can 39

00:01:44,166 --> 00:01:46,666

teach, such as a graduate student, PhD

40

00:01:46,666 --> 00:01:49,500

candidate, faculty, or exempt staff, you

41

00:01:49,500 --> 00:01:51,266

can check out both media loan and 42

00:01:51,266 --> 00:01:54,866 restricted loan items. Undergraduates are 43

00:01:54,866 --> 00:01:56,700

welcome to use restricted loan items in 44

00:01:56,700 --> 00:01:59,066 the library. We have viewing carols and 45

00:01:59,066 --> 00:02:02,700

headphones on site for your use. Shelf

46

00:02:02,700 --> 00:02:05,166

Status. If you find a due date in this 47

00:02:05,166 --> 00:02:07,233

field, that means the item is checked out

48

00:02:07,233 --> 00:02:09,766

and is expected to be back on or before

49

00:02:09,766 --> 00:02:12,066 that date. If you see a green checkmark 50

00:02:12,066 --> 00:02:13,766

the item is currently

51

00:02:13,766 --> 00:02:16,733 available for circulation. Call Number.

52

00:02:16,733 --> 00:02:19,233

Make note of this information and bring 53

00:02:19,233 --> 00:02:20,400

it with you to the film and video

54

00:02:20,400 --> 00:02:23,200

service desk with your UD ID to check

55

00:02:23,200 --> 00:02:29,400

out the item. DELCAT Discovery returns

56

00:02:29,400 --> 00:02:31,066

results for libraries around the world.

57

00:02:31,066 --> 00:02:33,700

Unless you are interested in placing an 58

00:02:33,700 --> 00:02:35,333

Interlibrary Loan request,

59

00:02:35,333 --> 00:02:36,866

be sure to check to make sure that the 60

00:02:36,866 --> 00:02:38,200

video or game in which you are 61

00:02:38,200 --> 00:02:40,533

interested is owned by University of 62

00:02:40,533 --> 00:02:43,600

Delaware. For instance, here we can see 63

00:02:43,600 --> 00:02:45,366 that the UD library owns several 64

00:02:45,366 --> 00:02:50,166

versions of "Sim" games but not all. You

65

00:02:50,166 --> 00:02:52,200

can also limit your search using "Format

66

00:02:52,200 --> 00:02:54,466

Facets". Perhaps you're interested in 67

00:02:54,466 --> 00:02:56,233

finding films directed by Kathryn

68

00:02:56,233 --> 00:02:58,633

Bigelow. If you do not need books or 69

00:02:58,633 --> 00:03:00,733 articles about her work, you can click on 70

00:03:00,733 --> 00:03:03,100

the "video" facet to limit your results to 71

00:03:03,100 --> 00:03:07,666

DVDs, Blu-rays, e-Videos, etc. Sometimes it

72

00:03:07,666 --> 00:03:09,033 can be tricky to locate a particular 73

00:03:09,033 --> 00:03:11,666

title owned by the library if the film

74

00:03:11,666 --> 00:03:13,500

or video game has titles similar to 75

00:03:13,500 --> 00:03:15,566

other videos or games, is an adaptation 76

00:03:15,566 --> 00:03:18,700

or remake, or as part of a series. For 77

00:03:18,700 --> 00:03:21,133

example, if you are looking for the 1932

78

00:03:21,133 --> 00:03:24,333

Howard Hawks film "Scarface", your initial 79

00:03:24,333 --> 00:03:26,800

search would only reveal the 1983 Brian 80

00:03:26,800 --> 00:03:29,566

DePalma version. Clicking on "View all

81

00:03:29,566 --> 00:03:31,600 editions" reveals the version you are 82

00:03:31,600 --> 00:03:37,133 searching for. Likewise, if you are 83

00:03:37,133 --> 00:03:38,766

looking for a video in a particular 84

00:03:38,766 --> 00:03:41,400

format you will use the "View all formats"

85

00:03:41,400 --> 00:03:43,833 and languages link. If you need a 86

00:03:43,833 --> 00:03:46,000 standard DVD version of a film and the 87

00:03:46,000 --> 00:03:47,933 initial results screen shows only a

88

00:03:47,933 --> 00:03:50,866
Blu-ray, click the "View all formats and 89

00:03:50,866 --> 00:03:52,833 languages" link. Here you will see that 90

00:03:52,833 --> 00:03:55,000
the UD library provides access to this 91

00:03:55,000 --> 00:03:58,200 particular film in several formats.

92

00:03:58,200 --> 00:04:01,433
The

93

00:04:01,433 --> 00:04:03,166
film and video collection is a closed-

94

00:04:03,166 --> 00:04:05,200
stacks collection and can't be browsed

95

00:04:05,200 --> 00:04:06,500 in the same way that you can browse

96

00:04:06,500 --> 00:04:09,566
books. However, the library has many ways

97

00:04:09,566 --> 00:04:11,500

to browse for film and video materials

98

00:04:11,500 --> 00:04:14,233

online. Please explore the Film and Video 99

00:04:14,233 --> 00:04:16,533

Collection website to discover ways in 100

00:04:16,533 --> 00:04:17,900

which you can find videos for your 101

00:04:17,900 --> 00:04:20,733 research or recreational viewing. You can 102

00:04:20,733 --> 00:04:22,866

also find more information about film

103

00:04:22,866 --> 00:04:24,800

and video circulation policies here as 104

00:04:24,800 --> 00:04:26,200

well.

105

00:04:26,200 --> 00:04:27,666

If you have any questions about 106

00:04:27,666 --> 00:04:29,833

searching for videos don't hesitate to 107

00:04:29,833 --> 00:04:31,866

contact Film and Video Collection staff

108

00:04:31,866 --> 00:04:35,100

for help. That's why we're here! Stop by
