You are writing a research paper on the following topic: Does regular drug testing prevent athletes' use of steroids? In the boxes below, record five good keywords or keyword phrases that can be used to search for this topic in DELCAT Discovery or a Library Database.

This is an open-ended response. Some good keywords include: "drug testing," drugs, steroids, "performance enhancing drugs," doping, athletes. Students may include other keywords.

You are searching for information on the following topic: How does social media impact the mental health of adolescents? You have tried searching for the keywords "Social media" AND adolescen*, but you've received too many irrelevant results. How can you narrow this search to receive fewer (and more accurate) results?

A and C only.

Place an "X" in the column of the search system that should be used to find each type of information. (Select all that apply.)
