Biden Senatorial Papers Arrive !

The University of Delaware Library received a major shipment of the Senatorial Papers of Vice President Joseph R. Biden, Jr., delivered to the Morris Library on June 6, 2012.

Vice President Biden served as U.S. Senator from Delaware for 36 years in six consecutive terms until his election as Vice President in 2008. In a heavily-attended ceremony in Mitchell Hall on Friday, September 16, 2011, the Vice President announced the donation of his senatorial papers to the University of Delaware Library.

The Biden senatorial papers will be processed and are expected to be available no sooner than 2019 or two years after Vice President Biden leaves public service, whichever is the latter. The University of Delaware Library has received a "director's grant" of $30,000 from the National Endowment for the Humanities which was used for the purchase of a server for use for the storage of the electronic records received as well as for some acid-free archival supplies to house physical documents.

The Biden senatorial papers complement the Delaware political collections in Special Collections including the papers of U.S. Representative Mike Castle, State Senator Thurman Adams, Representative and now Senator Thomas Carper, Senator John Williams, Senator J. Allen Frear, Jr., Governor Dale E. Wolf and others.

The UDaily announcement about the delivery of the Biden Papers of June 11, 2012, including a video, is available at www.udel.edu/udaily/2012/jun/library-biden-papers-061112.html

Biden, Jr. Senatorial Papers, and Susan Brynteson, Vice Provost and May Morris University Librarian, University of Delaware, opened a few of the 1,875 shrink-wrapped boxes recently delivered to the University of Delaware Library in Newark, Delaware. The boxes contain a portion of the Senatorial Papers of Vice President Joseph R. Biden, Jr. covering his 36 years of Senatorial service.

Greetings,

Welcome to the University of Delaware Library which includes the Morris Library and four branch libraries.

This is an exciting time for the University of Delaware Library, as more and more students are using the services, facilities and collections of the Library, both onsite and remotely. The Morris Library is also a favorite place to study and is open until 2 a.m. Sunday through Thursday nights during both the Fall and Spring semesters.

New technologies allow students and faculty to

- have remote access to collections 24/7
- ask questions of reference librarians who are subject specialists via text messaging, email or live chat
- link to the Library via Facebook
- create multimedia in the Library's state-of-the-art Student Multimedia Design Center with studios, workstations and cameras for loan
- browse in the stacks containing hundreds of thousands of books

Electronic journals, databases and ebooks are licensed by the Library and are available for research and instruction and provide millions of documents and references available only by subscription and not freely on the Internet. Examples are large databases like the Web of Science, JSTOR and the new Scopus; image databases like ARTstor; and comprehensive worldwide resources such as WorldCat Local with its links to over 220 million books and 530 million article citations.

The Library also has created more than 190 online Research Guides which are excellent places to begin research on a specific topic.

Please ask for assistance of Library staff at any service desk or online.

May your Library experience be abundant with enrichment and scholarly achievement!

Susan Brynteson, Vice Provost and May Morris University Librarian

Research Guides

Research Guides help facilitate research and study for faculty and students. Librarians have created customized guides on a variety of topics, which provide links to appropriate books, databases and websites. Research Guides also include interactive features, such as a reference chat box that allows users to chat live with a librarian. From the Library home page, users can select Research Guides or go to guides.lib.udel.edu

The screenshot shows the University of Delaware Library's Research Guides page for Education. The page features a navigation menu with categories like Home, General Resources, Books, Databases/Articles, Video Resources, Statistics, Directories, and Tests and Measures. A search bar is prominently displayed. The main content area is titled 'Education' and includes a 'Welcome, Education Scholars!' message. It lists various resources such as 'General Resources', 'Books', 'Databases/Articles', 'Statistics', 'Directories', and 'Tests and Measures'. A sidebar on the left provides 'Related Guides' and 'From Off Campus' information. A 'Subject Librarian' profile for Meg Grotti is also visible, including contact information and a photo.

This Education Guide is one of more than 190 guides in many disciplines created by the Library.

For Users with Disabilities

Users with disabilities have physical access to the Morris Library through the main entrance ramp and power-assisted doors. Closed captioning is available on designated video stations in the Film and Video Collection Department on the Lower Level of the Morris Library. The Assistive Technology Center on the First Floor is equipped with six computers with Internet access, special application software and large screen monitors. The workstations have Kurzweil 3000, ZoomText for screen magnification, JAWS for Windows and Dragon Naturally Speaking. For assistance or an orientation to the Assistive Technology Center, users may contact the Reference Department at 302-831-2432.

RefWorks — Organize References Online!

Managing references and creating bibliographies for research papers have always been time-consuming, complex tasks. RefWorks at www2.lib.udel.edu/database/refworks.html will save time and make the task easier. This web-based citation manager allows creation of a personal database by importing references from online databases. These references are used in automatically formatting a paper and its bibliography in seconds.

The University of Delaware Library subscribes to RefWorks for all UD users and offers workshops throughout the year covering the basics of setting up a RefWorks account, exporting citations from research databases and importing the citations to a personal RefWorks account. Additional workshops cover the Write-N-Cite feature, which makes it easy to insert properly formatted notes and citations into an MS Word document.

Information regarding RefWorks workshops is available at www2.lib.udel.edu/usered/workshops/current.htm

RefWorks is listed with 360 other Library databases. Users should first log on to a database to search and then log on to RefWorks.

Library Commons, Bleecker St. Café and 24-hour Study

The Library Commons, located just inside the main entrance of the Morris Library, contains tables and chairs, the Bleecker St. café, vending machines and both wired and wireless Internet access. The Library Commons is accessible from the terrace on the north side of the Morris Library and the main entrance of the Library. The Library Commons is open 24 hours a day for study during fall and spring semesters. Users may call 302-831-BOOK or go to www2.lib.udel.edu/hours for Library hours. Bleecker St. café information can be found at www.campusdish.com/en-US/CSE/Delaware/Locations/BleeckerSt.htm

To preserve Library collections, equipment and facilities, Library users should not bring food beyond the double glass doors of the Morris Library. Closed or resealable drink containers are permitted. With the financial assistance of Dining Services, patrolling Public Safety staff help the Library maintain an atmosphere conducive to studying and reading.

How to Print from Library Computers

All Library computers have networked printers. A designated “wireless” printer on the Lower Level is available from any location on the UD network. The instructions for installing the wireless printer are available at www.lib.udel.edu/multimedia/printcopyscan.html#wireless. Print jobs are released from Print Release Stations located near Library printers after swiping to pay with either a valid University of Delaware ID card (i-card) or a Library Copy Card with value.

Library Copy Cards may be purchased for $1 at the Student Multimedia Design Center desk or from a dispenser on the First Floor. Value is in the form of “FLEX” dollars and may be added to both cards at the Student Multimedia Design Center desk or at the Value Transfer Station, both located on the Lower Level. It is $.05 for single-sided prints and $.04 per side for double-sided prints, with double-sided being the print default. Printing from DELCAT, the Library online catalog, is available at no charge.

Group Study Rooms in the Morris Library

The Morris Library has 31 small Group Study Rooms available for the use of students on a first-come, first-served basis. Group Study Rooms, which are located on every floor of the Morris Library, hold from four to twelve students, have electrical outlets and have data connections for laptop use. The purpose of the Group Study Rooms is to provide a location for student group discussion and collaborative learning relating to the curriculum. The rooms are not available for meetings, for formal classroom instruction, for social purposes or for any purpose other than group study. The rooms are unlocked at all times. The Morris Library map is helpful in locating Group Study Rooms. www.lib.udel.edu/info/maps/pdf/morris-library-all-floors.pdf

Interlibrary Loan

Looking for articles and books that are available only at another library? The University of Delaware Library offers Interlibrary Loan (ILL) to assist users in gaining access to materials owned by other libraries in the United States and abroad. This service is available to University of Delaware faculty, students and staff. Registered users may track the status of their requests, view requested documents in PDF format and more.

Most Interlibrary Loan requests have a fast turnaround time. Eighty percent of articles requested through ILL are delivered to users online within two business days. Most books, DVDs, microfilm and other materials are available for pickup within two weeks of the request.

Logging into the system requires creating an ILL account. First-time users should go to udel.illiad.oclc.org/illiad/logon.html and follow the directions on that page. First-time users must log in with their UDeNet ID and password to confirm eligibility for ILL services, and then select a username and password for their ILL account.

Search for Resources from the Library Home Page

www.udel.edu/library

Books, Videos and More

Locate many types of resources from the University of Delaware Library by searching the “Books, Videos and More” tab on the Library home page. Items contained within the collections of libraries around the world can also be searched by selecting “Libraries Worldwide” on the “Advanced Search” screen within this tool.

The screenshot shows the University of Delaware Library home page. At the top left is the library logo and name. Below it is a navigation bar with two tabs: "Books, Videos, and More" (selected) and "Articles". The main content area contains several search boxes: 1. A general search box with a "SEARCH" button and links for "Advanced Search" and "Help". 2. A section titled "DELICAT - the online catalog of the University of Delaware Library" with its own search box and "SEARCH" button. 3. A section titled "DATABASES by Name" with a search box, "SEARCH" button, radio buttons for "Starts with" and "Keyword", and a dropdown menu for "Databases by subject". 4. A section titled "E-JOURNALS by Name" with a search box, "SEARCH" button, radio buttons for "Name begins with", "Match phrase", "Match ALL words", and "Match ANY words", and a dropdown menu for "E-Journals by subject". 5. A section titled "RESEARCH GUIDES - discover resources by subject" with a search box, "SEARCH" button, and a dropdown menu for "Research Guides by subject".

Articles

Where to Find Articles Online

The “Articles” tab on the Library home page limits the search to articles and book chapters from WorldCat and a limited number of selected Library databases. To select an individual database from a list of over 360, use the “Databases” search box.

DELICAT

DELICAT is the online catalog of the University of Delaware Library. Use DELICAT to discover if a specific item is available at the Library. DELICAT includes books, journals, maps, DVDs and video, microforms and government documents.

Databases

The “Articles” tab can be a starting point for research, but for an article search with more precision, go to the Databases search box to locate a specific database by name appropriate to your subject. Many of the article databases incorporate the Library’s “Get It!” function that links researchers to the full text of articles contained within electronic journals to which the Library subscribes.

E-Journals

To determine whether the University of Delaware Library provides access to a specific journal, users should type the journal title into the “E-journals” search box to connect to full-text articles within the journals. More than 85% of University of Delaware Library journal subscriptions are in electronic form only.

Research Guides

Use this search box to discover the key resources that librarians have recommended for your research area. “Research Guides” point to databases, e-journals and Internet resources, and the guides provide time-saving research tips.

Scopus: Major New Interdisciplinary Database

Scopus has 26 million records including references going back to 1996 and 21 million pre-1996 records going back as far as 1823.

Users have access to a number of tools, including Citation Tracker, Author Identifier, Affiliation Identifier and Journal Analyzer.

Scopus is available from the Library Database page at www2.lib.udel.edu/database/scopus.html

Need Information about Grants or Fellowships?

The Library has several databases that can help you get started with the grantseeking process. Finding external funding for projects need not be a daunting task! By providing knowledgeable staff and a variety of online and print resources, the Library seeks to make the process easier.

Thousands of grants are available to faculty, staff researchers, graduate students and nonprofit administrators who carefully research the philanthropic market. Several databases (such as those listed below) help users target providers of funding that have mutual interests and are more likely to fund their project.

- ▶ COS Pivot
- ▶ Foundation Directory Online Professional
- ▶ Foundation Grants to Individuals Online
- ▶ Grants.gov
- ▶ Philanthropy In/Sight

The Library is a Foundation Center Cooperating Collection, one of more than 450 reference collections located throughout the U.S. and several other countries. As such, the Library maintains a specialized collection of books and journals on grantsmanship and proposal writing.

To receive a brief tutorial on funding resources at the Library, please make an appointment with the Collection supervisor, Carol Rudisell, by sending an email to rudisell@udel.edu or by calling 302-831-6942. For information on upcoming Library workshops on grants, see www2.lib.udel.edu/usered/workshops/current.htm

Web of Science is one of the most important databases accessible via the University of Delaware Library. It provides references, abstracts and links to full text for more than 13,000 international journals in the sciences, social sciences and the arts and humanities. This citation database includes Science Citation Index Expanded (1900-present), Social Sciences Citation Index (1900-present) and Arts & Humanities Citation Index (1975-present).

Web of Science links references to both the online full text of articles in journals and to related articles, thus allowing a broad search across disciplines. The power of Web of Science as a research tool is due to its comprehensive subject coverage and its ability to link related articles through their bibliographic citations. The citation data allows a Library user to begin with a known, relevant journal article and find other, more recent articles that cite it.

Web of Science is the premier database in the "Get It!" service linking to full-text journal articles. Web of Science is available at www.lib.udel.edu/db

Film and Video Collection

The Library Film and Video Collection Department has a collection of more than 32,000 video and film programs located in the Morris Library on the Lower Level. The department includes viewing carrels equipped with a variety of film and video players. New materials are added throughout the year in support of the curriculum.

Film and Video Scheduling & Media Viewing Room

University of Delaware faculty, graduate teaching assistants and professional staff may schedule films and videos for classroom use, research and approved programmatic functions.

A 49-seat viewing room may be scheduled for use by University of Delaware faculty, instructors and authorized teaching assistants for audiovisual presentations to classes.

The Film and Video Collection Department has a Media Research Room available for University of Delaware faculty and instructors who need to research and preview films and videos for academic research and curriculum support.

Film and Video Circulation

Films and videos are available for checkout to University of Delaware faculty, staff, undergraduate and graduate students. Borrowers must present a valid University of Delaware ID card to check out materials.

Some films and videos are restricted due to heavy instructional use and so may be checked out only by faculty, graduate students and professional staff. Undergraduate students and other users may view these restricted items in the Film and Video Collection Department's viewing carrels. CDs and audio cassettes are shelved on the Lower Level near the south elevator and may be checked out at the main circulation desk on the First Floor. For more information go to: www.lib.udel.edu/filmandvideo

Special Collections: Rare Books, Manuscripts and Exhibitions

Special Collections is located on the Second Floor of the Morris Library. Holdings include books, manuscripts, maps, prints, photographs, broadsides, periodicals, pamphlets, ephemera and realia from the 15th to the 21st century. The collections complement the Library general collections with strengths in the arts; English, Irish and American literature; history and Delawareana; horticulture; history of science and technology; and the book arts.

These materials are available for research use by all University of Delaware faculty, staff, students and visiting scholars. Materials do not circulate, and photocopying of bound items is restricted. A laptop computer is available for use in Special Collections.

Special Collections holdings are distinguished by their subject matter, age, rarity, association with the author or earlier owners, special illustrations or binding, textual or historical significance, fragile format or other criteria.

Among the collections are manuscripts and significant editions of works by selected 20th century American authors, for example, Alice Dunbar-Nelson, Tennessee Williams and Paul Bowles.

Exhibitions of materials from Special Collections are featured in the Special Collections Exhibition Gallery with two major exhibitions each year and are occasionally accompanied by a published guide or catalog. The exhibitions also contribute to scholarship in a field, interpret aspects of the collections and commemorate historic and cultural events. Adjacent to the Exhibition Gallery is the Lincoln Exhibit which features items from the Lincoln Collection. Online versions of exhibitions, as well as other online resources, including finding aids for many manuscript and archival collections, are available at www.lib.udel.edu/ud/spec via the Special Collections web.

Exhibitions on the First Floor of the Morris Library highlight areas of the Library general collections.

Shakespeare, William, 1564-1616.
Mr. William Shakespeares comedies, histories, and tragedies / published according to the true original copies. London : Printed by Tho. Cotes, for John Smethwicke, and are to be sold at his shop in Saint Dunstons Church-yard, 1632.
