Reading Room, Morris Library
University of Delaware

Kevin Smith

This program will be followed by a reception to which attendees are invited.

Kevin Smith is a librarian and an attorney experienced in copyright and technology law. At Duke University, Mr. Smith teaches and advises faculty, librarians, administrators and students about copyright, intellectual property licensing and scholarly publishing. Duke's Scholarly Communications Office supports Duke University's research, teaching and service mission by providing guidance in matters relating to the dissemination and use of knowledge.

Kevin Smith holds a Masters of Library Science from Kent State University and has worked as an academic librarian in both liberal arts colleges and specialized libraries. His strong interest in copyright law began in library school. He received a law degree from Capital University in 2005 and is admitted to the bar in Ohio and North Carolina.

This event is open to the public. Acceptances are encouraged at 302-831-2231 or via email at [librarysvp@winsor.lib.udel.edu] and walk-ins are welcome.

Parking validation will be provided for the Visitors' Lot #41 on South College Avenue, the Trabant University Center Garage on Main Street and the Perkins Student Center Garage on Academy Street upon leaving the Morris Library, as needed.
